Barrington's White House Announces Its 2019 Fall Cultural Events Season

TICKETS ARE NOW ON SALE AT BARRINGTONSWHITEHOUSE.COM

BARRINGTON CONTINUES to gain recognition as the Northwest Suburbs' premier hub for engaging and enlightening cultural and arts events as Barrington's White House announces its thrilling fall season. From a season kickoff benefit concert with the internationally renowned Lincoln Trio to the ongoing 3rd Thursdays "Art Night Out" and a variety of musical and stage offerings—this fall the White House has something for everyone looking for a wonderful afternoon or evening to enjoy the arts.

"I couldn't be more excited about the 2019 fall events, which will kick off an extraordinary 2019-2020 cultural season at Barrington's White House," said Cultural Director Rollin Potter. "We are so very proud that Barrington's White House has become a true cultural destination in our area, where people can see internationally acclaimed artists perform and interact with them in a wonderfully intimate setting."

SEASON LAUNCHES WITH LINCOLN TRIO

The White House 2019–2020 season launches on Saturday, September 14, at 7:30 p.m. (cocktail party at 6 p.m.) with our season "Opening Night" benefit concert featuring the Grammy-nominated and internationally renowned Lincoln Trio. Hailed as "one of the hottest young trios in the business," Barrington native Marta Aznavoorian returns to Barrington's White House on piano, joined by Desirée Ruhstrat on violin, and David Cunliffe on cello. All proceeds from this special evening will support White House cultural events. Presenting sponsor is Barrington Bank & Trust.

3RD THURSDAYS ART NIGHTS

Our wildly popular 3rd Thursdays Art Night Out series resumes on Thursday, September 19, at 6 p.m. with the "Dynamics of Water and Light" by Cindy Marrazzo. The series continues on October 17 with "Nature and Abstraction" by Barb Rydz

Ross, and on November 21 with "Paintings of the Midwest and Maine" by Jim Root.

SPECIAL FRVHHF HUNT BREAKFAST AND PROGRAM

Norman Fine presents Tallyho Back!

On Sunday, September 22, at 1:30 p.m., we invite you to "Tallyho Back!" with the Fox River Valley Hound Heritage Foundation Hunt Breakfast. Take a trip back in history with Norman Fine, editor of Fox Hunting Life, to learn how mounted foxhunting began in North America.

Barbara Rinella will present "A Tribute to Barbara and George Bush".

DRAMATIC PRESIDENTIAL READING

Learn more about George and Barbara Bush with a dramatic reading by Barbara Rinella on Sunday, October 6, at 3 p.m. Following her acclaimed performance as Eliza Hamilton, Rinella returns to pay tribute to America's longest married presidential couple.

FALL PLEIN AIR EVENT

If you like to watch artists at work, you won't want to miss our third annual "Plein Air" (outdoor painting) event on Sunday, October 12 (rain date October 13). Over 30 artists will paint local landmarks from October 7 to 12 throughout our community, culminating in a complimentary reception and awards ceremony at Barrington's White House at 6 p.m. on October 12, where their works will be for sale. Paint the Town Barrington coincides with the Barrington Wine Walk on October 12 from 2–6 p.m. At the White House, our historic docents will give a nod to the French Impressionists by serving exquisite French wines for tastings that afternoon.
