FOLDS OF HONOR EVENT DELIVERS FUNDING FOR 120 SCHOLARSHIPS

ON JUNE 24, 2019, Folds of Honor Chicago held its Patriot Golf Day at Biltmore and Barrington Hills Country Clubs during the day. The event sold out in one week to more than 150 golfers. A crowd of 200 guests gathered after the golf outing for dinner and remarks from esteemed military personnel and the nonprofit's founder, Major Dan Rooney.

Since 2007, Folds of Honor's mission is to provide educational scholarships to the spouses and children of America's fallen and disabled service members. Their motto is "Honor Their Sacrifice. Educate Their Legacy". Once accepted for a scholarship, the organization commits to seeing that child financially up to and through to his or her college years.

Generous "Hole In One" lead sponsors were Motor Werks Auto Group and Wickstrom Auto Group. Outstanding live auction items including a fishing trip with Captain Bill Schey in the Gulf of Mexico as well as a Private Practice Round at Masters with private air travel. "I would like to thank our donors, sponsors, volunteers, and participants, all who worked hard to make this a highly successful event," said event organizer Marine Corps Veteran Bill Schey.
