

About Us: Katie Wozniak, founder and principal designer of KED Interiors, combines creativity, expertise, and vision in every project. Since 2005, her Barrington-based firm has been featured in The Wall Street Journal and Aspire Home for its innovative designs. With design education in Chicago, the U.K., and Paris, Katie's refined aesthetic blends sophistication with comfort. KED Interiors is known for creating personalized, timeless homes that reflect each client's individuality.

Your Dream, Our Collaboration: We start by understanding your vision to create a space that reflects your lifestyle and personality. From interior architecture to styling, we ensure every detail is functional and personal. Working with trusted partners and our talented team, we bring together diverse expertise to elevate your home.

An Experience to Enjoy: Designing your home should be exciting, not overwhelming. We guide you through every detail, keeping you inspired with clear communication and thoughtful decisions. Whether customizing a new home or reimagining an existing one, our goal is a joyful, streamlined process that results in a home that is beautifully, uniquely, yours.

Formerly Katherine Elizabeth Designs, KED Interiors has evolved to reflect our collaborative, full-service approach—while staying true to our passion for timeless, personal spaces.
